DAY 02	Tuk Tuk Discovery & Kids Natural Dyes Class	(B)
--------	---	-----

The tuk tuk (a motorized-rickshaw) was brought to South East Asia in 1934 from Japan, and has since then become an icon of the region. They're one of most popular forms of transportation in Laos, this is the perfect vehicle for an open-air tour of Luang Prabang.

Starting from your hotel at 8:00, we'll drive to the open-air Morning Market in the old town. Your guide will explain the common vegetables and fruits that are in season and pick up some snacks for later.

From there you'll take a short ride through more of the picturesque town to Wat Xieng Thong. This is the most important temple in Luang Prabang and one of the most important temples in the entire country.

We'll end the day's tour atop Phou Si Hill. From the top, you can see panoramic views of the surrounding town, the meeting of two rivers, and the curve of the Mekong as flows into and around the town.

You will spend the afternoon at Ock Pop Tok set in a tropical Mekong garden. The Kids Natural Dyes Class is an introduction to silkworms and silk types. In this class, you will have our hands on experience with natural dye preparation, choose from dyeing your own indigo scarf, or tie-dyeing a t-shirt using a variety of patterns. (Class specially design for kids).

Overnight in Luang Prabang

Service hours: 09:00 to 18:00

DAY 03

Nature and Tree Top Walk

(B)

This morning we'll leave Luang Prabang for a day of Nature and Soft Adventure. After a 30 min drive in the countryside with stunning view of the valley you will reach Nahm Dong Waterfalls. Here you will start the visit of the organic garden, then get setup for more action with a Tree Top Walk or a Zip-Lines excursion where you can enjoy forest views, beautiful scenery and waterfalls. We will get back to the hotel in the afternoon.

Overnight in Luang Prabang

Service hours: 8:30 to 16:00

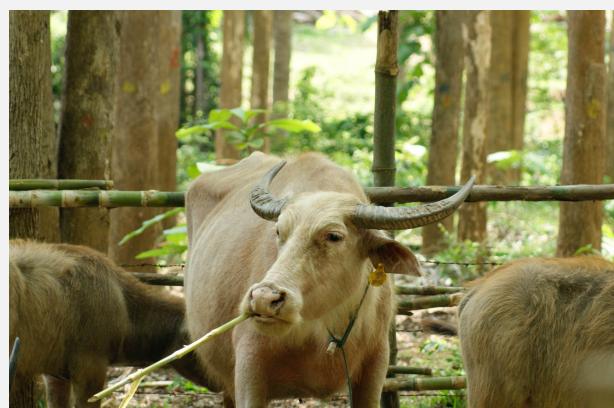

DAY 04

Buffalo Dairy & Kuang Si Waterfalls

(B)

Get a glimpse of the real Laotian daily life with a visit to the bustling and chaotic local market, Phousi Market.

Travel by car to reach the Buffalo Dairy, here you will join a tour through the mini farm, meet and cuddle our buffalo, try your hand on milking demonstration. Note that the Buffalo may be the stars of the show but playful pigs, cheeky chickens and rollicking rabbits are also plenty of fun for the young and young at heart! Before leaving get tented by some homemade ice cream.

We continue to our main highlight of the day, the multi-tiered turquoise-colored Kuang Si Waterfall, deemed one of the most beautiful waterfalls in South-east Asia. Here you can also visit the Bears Rescue Centre to see Asiatic bears rescued from illegal poaching and trading.

Overnight in Luang Prabang

DAY 06

Ban Chan Pottery Tour

(B,L)

Ban Chan Village has been making pottery for centuries, but that way of life is slowly fading away. Our hope is to use these tours to preserve the tradition of our village and provide a sustainable way of life for community. Through this pottery tour we hope to bring you into contact with these people, their culture, their history, and much more. Starting with a short Tuk Tuk drive to the boat pier, we'll ride south on the Mekong and disembark at Ban Chan Village. We'll explore this village and the pottery center, during which your guide will share his story and the story of this village. Afterwards, you will get a hand-ons experience with pottery making, led by Lao pottery experts. We'll end the tour with a Lao traditional meal before transferring back to Luang Prabang.
